

Carmelo was born with umbilical cord wrapped around his neck and deprived oxygen for 40 minutes, resulting in brain damage, now 3yrs old

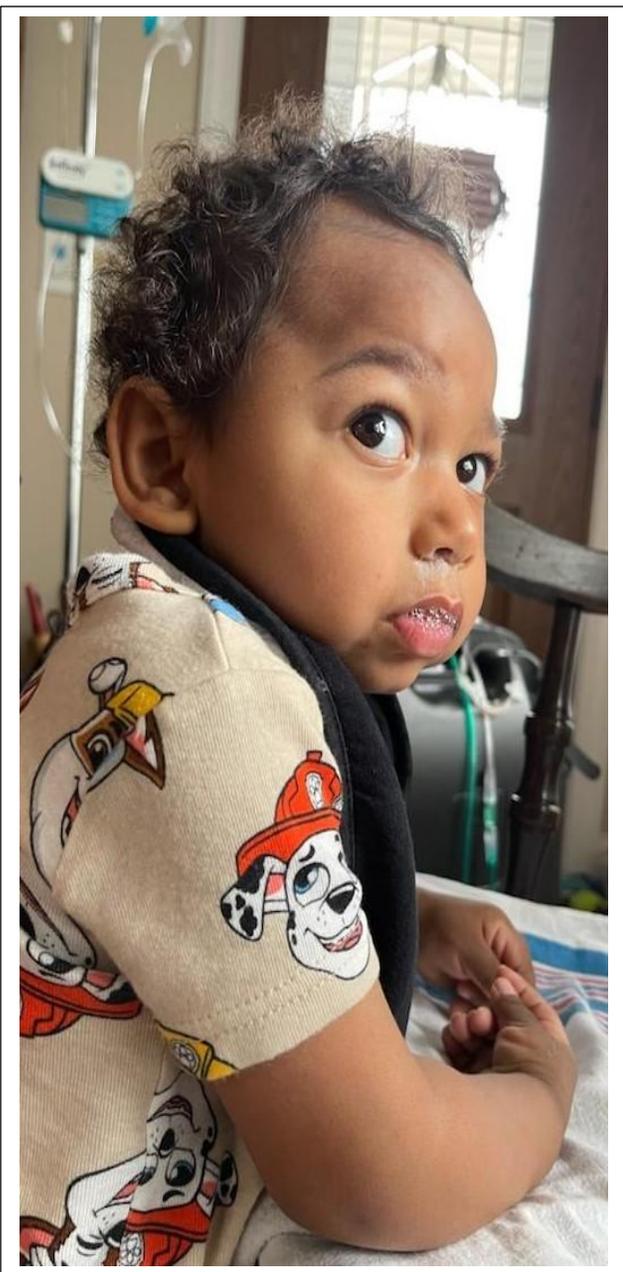

Day Before Life Armor

Therapist must hold head as not enough strength to support head or control movement

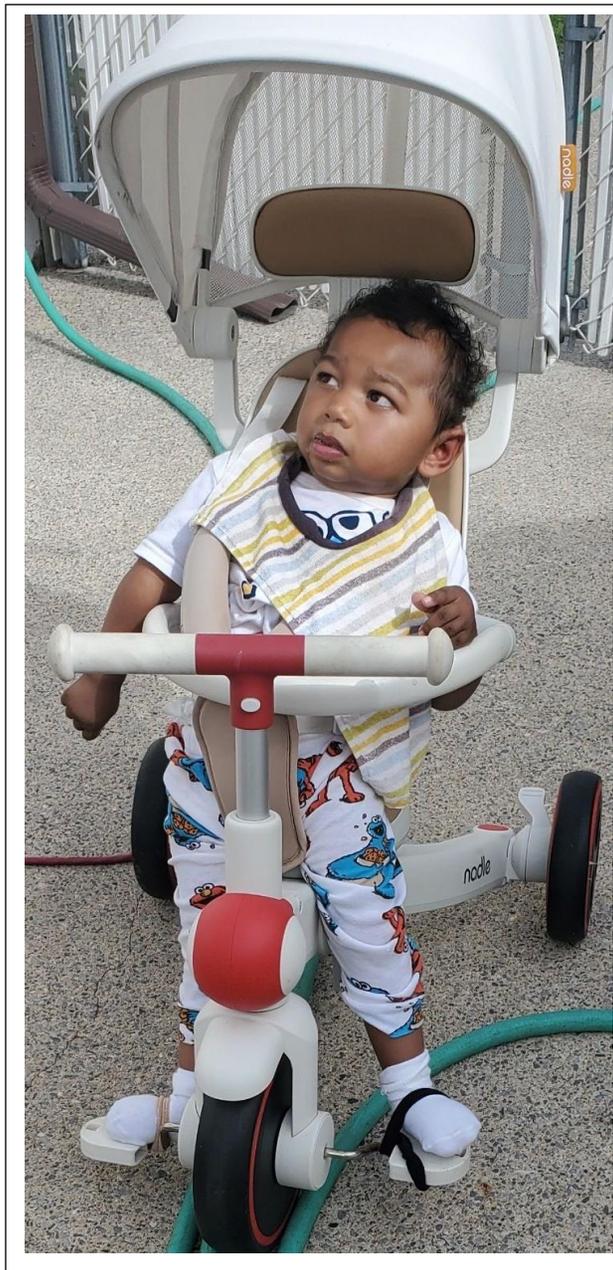

Life Armor Day 3

Therapist states Carmelo has experienced less discomfort and smiling 3 days straight

Life Armor Day 7

Therapist states Carmelo now able to support his head for first time in his life!

Life Armor Day 30

Therapist states Carmelo now able to support and turn his head, travels two blocks outside!

Life Armor Day 32

Motor skills improve, Carmelo is now able to hold a pacifier on his own, first time in his life!